Committee of the Whole.

(By Associated Press.)

ALBANY, April 20.—When the Sheffield bill giving power to the coming Mayor of New York to remove and appoint the heads of departrents, was handed down from the Lieutenant-Governor's desk to-day, Senator Saxton said that every one had made up his mind on the bill and knew how he would yote on it. There was no need of having the bill go to a committee and he therefore moved that it go to the Committee of the whole at once.

Senator Contor objected, Said he: "If there is any bill before the Legislature.

RAPID TRANSIT BILLS.

Made a Senate Order for Tuesday --Dock Department Bill Reported. (By Associated Press.)

STATE CAPITOL, ALBANY, April 20.

-There was an unusually large attendance of State Senators at the session this morning for Friday owing to the sandouncement of Senator Saxton, made yesterday, that a large calendar of bills on third reading would be acted upon. The Butts and Chamber of Commerce Rapid Transit bills, reported from the Ralicoad Committee, were made a special order for Tuesday morning next. Both bills were amended. In the Chamber of Commerce bill the names of the Commissioners are stricken out and the clause calling for a popular vote inserted. The Butt's bill is made to provide for a non-partisan commission. announcement of Senator Saxton, made to provide for a non-partisan commis-sion, and the clause which it was feared might lead to a monopoly was stricken

When the Cities Committee reported Senator Saxton's Dock Department bill. Senator Cantor raised the question whether a majority of the Committee had voted in favor of the report.

On being assured that the Democratic members had agreed to the report, with the understanding that the bill would be sent back if a hearing was desired, he withdrew his objection.

Baez was reported to the United physician was sent to the hospital to examine into his condition before an attempt was made to remove him. The doctor's report states that Baez has been suffering for the past nine months with a cancerous growth in his throat. An operation was performed on him some time ago and a silver tube inserted in windpipe to assist him in breathing. Subsequently it became necessary to perform another surgical operation, so that he might take food into his stomach without passing it through his mouth. An opening was cut in the side of his neck through which is passed, three times a day and twice at night, a mixture composed of a beaten erg in a pint of milk.

The physician said Baez was able to come down to the Commissioner's office without danger to his health.

A reconciliation however, was effected and they lived together again until a month ago. Meinicke suddenly disappeared. According to his wife he was an the habit of daing this at irregular periods. She began a search for him and a week ago last Monday found him in his office. He went home with her and for a week following was not seen at his place of business. It was hinted that he couldn't leave the house as his wife had locked up his clothing.

The rest of the story is told by Mrs. Meinicke, who was seen in her flat this morning by an "Evening World" reporter. The interview was fragmentary as she said she was under the care of a objectant when was in an adjoining room, and she made frequent trips into thit room to consult him.

She declared that most of the trouble was due to her husband's relatives, who wanted her to perform duties usually allotted to a domestic. Moreover, she said Mr. Meinicke was an exceedingly eccentric and impulsive man.

"He left me suddenly some days ago, she said, "when our twin children were only two week sold. I succeeded in getting him to come back home, and last Wedneaday night he got out of bed sudenly, put his street clothes on over his night robe, and left the house.
